

ICDL TEACHER CERTIFICATION

BECOME A 21ST-CENTURY TEACHER IN 18 HOURS OF LEARNING

The ICDL Teacher's Certification is a professional teacher development programme that provides teachers with essential relevant ICT skills, regardless of their educational domain or teaching level. The programme consists of six modules delivered through interactive self-learning online courses designed to empower teachers with skills to effectively employ technology in the classroom.

Learn to use the common Office Applications to teach and prepare digital teaching content

Learn to integrate technology in your teaching to better engage students

Learn to apply best practices and technical settings to safeguard students from cyber threats

Support your teaching practices by learning to create a hybrid and collaborative learning environment

Boost your credentials with an internationally recognised computer certification

What are the ICT Skills that you will gain to support your teaching?

ICT in Education

- ICT Resources for Teaching and Learning
- ICT Resources for Assessment
- Sourcing, Evaluating ICT Resources

Cyber Security for Educators

- Laws, policies and procedures, and consequences.
- Child friendly search engines, privacy settings, and parental controls
- Risks like cyber bullying, and online radicalization

Online Collaboration

- Setup and use online collaborative tools
- Use online storage, productivity applications, calendars, social media
- Use web meetings, learning environments, and mobile technology

Computer and Internet

- Computers, software, Networks
- Internet browser settings, bookmarks, and web search and outputs
- Online communications, e-mail, and calendars

Office Applications

- Create, format, and finish word documents, spread sheets, presentations
- Work with Mathematical and logical formulas, charts
- Apply animation and transition effects to presentations

Computer Typing and Data Entry

- A test of typing speed and accuracy
- 3 minute typing test with 3 trials
- No pass or fail, records highest score

ICDL TEACHER CERTIFICATION PROGRAMME FEATURES

18 hours

Interactive online learning with practices

24/7 access

Self-learn at your pace

Flexible modular structure

Select the skills you need

Test from anywhere

via our remote proctoring

User-Friendly

Easy to navigate and learn

In-person training

optional

Recognised Certificate

worldwide, regionally and locally

Available Languages

Arabic or English