

Child got the ICDL certificate

Dibba Fujairah - Abdel Hakim Mahmoud:

Reem Abdel razik Al Shaer from Egypt aged 8, student at Lubna Bint Habbab primary education School in Dibba, to obtain ICDL certificate (International Computer Driving Licence) of Fujairah Centre College continuing education and management development - Dibba Fujairah.

Abdel Razek Al Shaer, the girl's father, and worked in the field of teaching said he discovered his daughter's tendencies toward a Computer from an early age what impetus to the development of capabilities and refined on this side, where he insisted that a registration centers specializing in computer science to be able to competently obtaining the International Computer Driving Licence from the Centre for continuing education and management development of the Faculty of Fujairah-Dibba within 28 days, which is record time for a girl in such age.

The girl's father added: her daughter was able last month to obtain the gold medal events during the national campaign to encourage reading - Train of knowledge contest - which was organized in Dubai for her success in summarizing the 155 books and the story also explained that it has ranked first in the end of the school year exams at Lubna Bint Habbab primary education School.

Al Shaer express my gratitude to all workers the status of continuing education and management development Dibba Fujairah for their effort with his daughter and technically configured to receive such an international certificate.

Ibrahim Al Ayassa trainer computer in the center said: the girl obtain the International Computer Driving Licence confirms the genius and superiority in this area and this is what we sensed the proximity during the accession of the session, pointing out that it was able to complete all training programs within 28 days only.

Reem Abdel Razeq said that she is very pleased to obtain the license. Regarding the future security said "I like to become a doctor."